Hon. Robert H. Jackson,
U.S. Supreme Court,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Justice Jackson:

I thank you for your good letter about Gisevius.

I am also putting him in touch with some friends in the Pentagon, but told him that there might be difficulty in so far as any material is classified. Of course, I should think that we would be declassifying the German documents in the not too distant future so that they could be available to scholars.

Very sincerely yours,

A. W. Dulles
